Alice Moore In Women's Air Force

Miss Alice Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Moore, left March 29 for Lackland Air Force Base in Texas for her first six weeks of training with the United States Air Force.

Miss Moore, the seventh Torrance girl to join the Women's Air Force through the local recruiting office, assisted by Sgt. Don Yeaman, Air Force representative, was graduated from Carson High School last January. She has been employed at the Sears Service Center since then.

Her desire to serve her country came as a result of an argument with a fellow classmate who was threatening to burn his draft card, so says the pretty coed who donned the smart uniform of a WAF.

Alice will continue her education either in dental hygiene or foreign languages as she serves her four-year tour of duty.
